BROKER CONTINUING EDUCATION COURSES INFORMATION

Purpose of the Continuing Education Program

The primary objective of the mandatory Continuing Education Program is to help assure that licensees possess the knowledge, skills, and competency necessary to function in the real estate business in a manner that protects and serves real estate consumers and the public interest.

Per G.S.93A-38.5, brokers must complete eight (8) credit hours of instruction annually in subjects approved by the Commission in order to retain eligibility to actively engage in real estate brokerage. Per Commission Rule 58A .1702, the eight hours must be comprised of an Update course and four credit hours of elective courses.

Course Description(s):

- 2025-2026 General Update (GenUp): Annual Update Course for Non-BIC and Non-BIC Eligible Brokers.
- 2025-2026 Broker-in-Charge Update (BICUP): Annual Update Course for BIC and BIC Eligible Brokers.
- Elective: “Agency: Art or Agony?”: An elective course designed to cause brokers to “stop...and...think” about his/her actions or inactions when working with buyers and sellers or landlords and tenants, especially when acting as a dual agent.
- Elective: “Between the Lines: Insights from the Real Estate Bulletin”: A real estate elective course designed to address some of the most commonly asked questions posed by real estate brokers and to provide insight into many misunderstood positions taken by the Commission on transactional matters.
- Elective: “Fair Housing v6.0”: Today’s real estate practitioner must establish business practices that comply with fair housing laws and offer equal professional service to all. Consistency, objectivity, and documentation are critical in accomplishing this objective. This 4-hour course includes the topics pertinent to fair housing in today’s real estate world, including the law, property management, advertising, and diversity and unconscious bias. This course counts towards NAR’s Fair Housing requirement.
- Elective: “The Contract Maze”: A real estate elective course designed to navigate the intricate details and elusive question of “When does an offer become a contract?”
- Elective: “What Would Your Mama Say?”: A real estate elective course designed to address the REALTOR Code of Ethics, with emphasis on the 88-Standards of Practice as found in the 17-Articles, followed by case studies based upon real-world situations. This course counts towards NAR’s REALTOR® Code of Ethics requirement.
- Elective: “What is IRC 1031 Exchange & How to Apply It?”: A class defining the Tax code 1031. Whenever you sell business or investment property and you have a gain, you generally have to pay tax on the gain at the time of sale. IRC Section 1031 provides an exception and allows you to postpone paying tax on the gain if you reinvest the proceeds in similar property as part of a qualifying like-kind exchange. Gain deferred in a like-kind exchange under IRC Section 1031 is tax-deferred, but it is not tax-free.
- Elective: “Selling Properties in Historic Districts in North Carolina”: In this course you will learn about the legal background for historical zoning, some of the various types of homes and buildings considered “historic”, some of the elements of historic architecture, and also the materials often found in historic homes. You might not leave with all the answers to dealing with historic properties, but you will at least know the questions to ask and some background to consider. At the end of the course, you will have a working knowledge of historic districts and be able to explain issues to both sellers and buyers who are not familiar with historic district controls and goals.
